

Hope in Him©

An anthem of hope by Elizabeth Christian

What is this pain I feel?

It seems as though it was just yesterday my whole world came crashing down.

I keep trusting and holding on,

Trying not to lean on my own strength, but in His alone.

HOPE.

Every day is a new challenge, a new obstacle.

Sometimes the valley is full of elegant, radiant, blossoming flowers,

And sometimes I lose sight of the trail and get lost in the wilderness.

My eyes fixate on the dark clouds and thunderstorms that come my way.

I will persist and resist these doubts.

HOPE.

I will keep calling the Creator of the universe who paints hope into the stars above

Where small glimpses of light turn a colorless night

Into something breath-taking and life-changing.

He is my future, forever.

HOPE.

He brings hope to the hopeless,

Power to the powerless,

And wants to turn your tears into a beautiful masterpiece.

Hope in Him is the answer to all of life's unknowns.

Keep HOLDING ON.

The hope that Christ offers changes everything.
